Americanized
Encyclopedia
BritannicaOver the English work shown so strongly as in the articles which narrate the history of the Civil War. The article on the United States in the tenth volume contains a full history of the war, its causes and its results.
Under their respective heads, as GETTYS-BURG, the WILDERNESS CAMPAIGN, etc., the great and decisive battles are separately treated. The biographies of Grant and Lee, of Sherman and Sheridan, Ranocok and Stonewall Jackson, and the other great leaders of armies are full and complete, and the histories of Lincoln, Davis, Seward, Stanton and others who helped to make history between 1860 and 1865 are given in full detail. From these sources there can be gained at a glance the entire history of the gigantic struggle which resulted in the overthrow of slavery and the affirmation of the fact that the United States is a nation, one and indivisible. The English work paid little attention to this, probably the greatest war of all time. No American citizen can afford to remain in ignorance of the history of his country, and nowhere can he obtain a better account of the civil war than in the AMER-ICANIZED ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITAN-NICA. The English work appears to have been prepared by men whose idea was that our stupendous war was only a contest between two armed mobs, a view of which we cannot share.The Herald is enabled to offer this work science, elements of natural philosophy, elementary algebra, bookkeeping, drawing and music.Sealed proposals for furnishing such books will be received by the undersigned, commissioner of schools, at any time prior to the hour of meeting of said convention on aforesaid day; all proposals must be accompanied by sample copies of the books proposed to be furnished, together with a statement of the introductory and exchange price, and of the wholesale and retail prices at which the publisher agrees to furnish the books to the territory during the full time for which said books may be adopted.

The convention reserves the right to reject any and all proposals.At the time aforesaid, namely, 10 o'clock a. m. of the 15th day of June, 1892, the convention will open and public and read the proposals which shall have been received, and shall within thirty days thereafter make their award thereon, and the publisher or publishers whose proposals shall be accepted, will be required to enter into a written contract with the commissioner of schools, and to give bond with two sufficient sureties in a sum to be fixed by such contract, for the faithful performance of such contract.JACOB S. BOEHMAN,
